

Lord, for you my soul is long - ing; O my God, in you I trust.
 Show your paths to me, your ser - vant, and di - rect me in your ways.
 Lord, re - mem - ber your great mer - cy, which has ev - er been of old.
 He, the Lord, is good and up - right; love and mer - cy he will show.
 All God's paths are love and mer - cy, faith - ful - ness that nev - er ends,

Do not let my foes dis - grace me; stop the taunts of the un - just.
 Lead me in your truth and teach me; guide and keep me all my days.
 Call to mind your stead - fast prom - ise and your con - stant love un - fold.
 Sin - ners are by him in - struct - ed in the way that they should go.
 for all those who keep his cov' - nant and who hon - our its de - mands.

All whose hope is in your name you will hon - our with your bless - ing;
 Lord, I know your word is true, and with ea - ger ex - pec - ta - tion
 Lord, for - give my sins of youth, my re - bel - lion, my trans - gres - sion.
 He re - veals the path of light to the hum - ble and the low - ly,
 As be - fits your ho - ly name, Lord, for - give my e - vil - do - ing;

trai - tors you will put to shame—those with - out ex - cuse trans - gress - ing.
 all day long I hope in you as the God of my sal - va - tion.
 God of good - ness, grace, and truth, think of me in your com - pas - sion.
 guid - ing them in what is right, teach - ing them his laws most ho - ly.
 great though be my sin and shame, hear my prayer, your love re - new - ing.
